The Italian American Professional and Business Men's Club Scholarship at The University of Akron

Established in 1987, the Italian-American Professional and Businessmen's Club Scholarship is awarded annually to a student of Italian descent majoring in one of the fine arts (art, dance, music, or theater). Each spring, the Dean's office solicits nominations from area school directors and faculty in those areas, and makes a selection from the nominees. The University is grateful to the IAPBC for helping talented students learn to shine in the arts!

Current Recipient – Matthew DeRubertis

Matthew is an outstanding sophomore in the U of A School of Music's Jazz Studies Program. According to Professor Jack Schantz, who heads the program, Matthew is a star performer and student – bass player with an impressive GPA of 3.97!

Matthew is a member of The University of Akron Jazz Ensemble as well as several smaller ensembles. You can hear Matt and the Jazz Ensemble perform on Tuesday evening, March 11, at 8 p.m. in Guzzetta Recital Hall for the opening concert of UA's JazzFest 2008. Special seating is available for any member of the IAPBC.

Recent Recipient – Rossi DiBenedetto

Rossi graduated from the University of Akron in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in music education and has been a music educator for three years. A talented percussionist, he is now leading the Band Program at Mt. Gilead School in Mt.

Gilead, Ohio. Rossi teaches 6th through 12th grade marching band, concert band, jazz band and pep band.

2006-07 was a record-setting year for Rossi's marching band in competitions around Ohio. The band received four 1st-place awards and many best overall marching, music and percussion awards. The band qualified for state competition for the first time in school history. During the same academic year, the band marched in the Disney Music Magic Days in Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. Rossi conducted and played for the Galion Community Band during the year as well as performing in musicals at local high schools and colleges. He coaches 8th grade girls' basketball and is the head middle school track coach. Rossi was nominated for the book, Who's Who in Education, and plans to start his master's degree in music soon. (Thanks to Scholarship Committee co-chair Leonard Falcone for providing this information!)

All-American Soap Box Derby attracts Italian participants

IAPBC member John Piscitelli was recently interviewed by the Akron Beacon Journal regarding his efforts to assist his cousin, Pier Luigi Coscarella in Italy, to start a soap box derby competition there to send winners to the international race here in Akron. John has been a member of the derby board for more than two decades and deserves congratulations for all his hard work!

Membership Roster Planned

It's been a few years since the last membership roster was published and we are exploring methods of publishing a new list this year. We will need updated contact information and will send out forms to be completed in the near future. Any changes in address, phone, e-mail or employment since 2004 can be sent to IAPBC Secretary John Villilo at jcv111@ameritech.net or in person at the Thursday meetings. In addition, in order to distribute the newsletter in the most efficient manner and to save the ever increasing cost of mailing, please send an e-mail to the same address with the subject "IAPBC" to be added to the e-mail list if you do not receive the newsletter currently by this method. THANKS!
